About the Program

The MOZ-Art Program is a 7-week summer camp dedicated to opera, music, and zarzuela for children and youth in Miami.

Participants explore singing, acting, and creative expression through workshops, rehearsals, and performances.

The program provides a unique opportunity for young artists to develop their talents and share their creativity with the community.

Workshops & Learning

Students learned music, singing, acting, and creative expression in weekly sessions.

The program included violin lessons, vocal training, and collaborative artistic activities.

Workshops focused on developing both technical skills and creative confidence in a supportive environment.

Rehearsals

Teamwork and discipline prepared students for stage performances.

Regular rehearsals-built confidence and performance skills in a collaborative environment.

Students practiced vocal techniques, stage presence, and ensemble coordination.

Performances

Public performances brought families and the community together to celebrate the students' achievements.

The final productions showcased the skills and talents developed throughout the 7-week program.

WELCOME · SHARED COMMITMENT

Today we begin with clarity, trust, and shared responsibility.

This orientation explains what families can expect from MOZ-Art and what the program needs from every student and every student and parent in order to succeed.
